Huonville Green Corps Launch

Wednesday 18th February 11am Skinners Creek Park, – Ms Julie Collins MP will officially launch CVGT Employment and Training Specialists Green Corps Project this Wednesday 17th February at 11 am.

The Green Corps Team of 17 to 20 year olds is working on a number of sites in the Huonville area managed by members of Huon Valley Environment Network. A collaborative group of Land care supported by the council

The project will provide the Green Corps Team Members with a diversity of environmental cultural heritage and community based activities to increase their skills and knowledge,

This exciting project, which has many community and professional people working alongside the team, is about using the practical medium to prepare the young people for future employment and training. The team will focus on developing a range of workplace skills including leadership, problem solving, accepting diversity, conflict resolution, working as a team, planning and developing activities, in addition to the technical on ground skills in Conservation and Land Management, for which they gain accredited training.

The Green Corps team will be involved with a range of tasks and learning many new things during this project ensuring that this group of young people get the best chance possible to gain a range of skills useful to them in any career they choose.

CVGT is a not-for-profit unlisted public company, providing high quality employment and training services. CVGT provides a full range of employment and training services to employers and job seekers in regional Victoria, Melbourne, Sydney and Tasmania.

Media are welcome to attend the launch at 11 am at Skinners Creek Park, Sale Rd Huonville.
