

INTRODUCING CVGT

WHO WE ARE

CVGT Employment and Training Specialists is a not-for-profit unlisted public company, providing high quality employment and training services to employers and jobseekers in regional Victoria, Melbourne, Sydney and Tasmania.

We are a forerunner in the provision of employment and training programs and for a quarter of a century we have responded to changes in market demands for our services and to how employment and training is delivered.

OUR EXPERTISE

CVGT Employment and Training consultants are skilled professionals who work with you to gain an in-depth understanding of your specific recruitment and training requirements.

We use the most up to date selection and training methods to assist you in increasing productivity and business growth by providing the right person for the job and training tailored to your business needs.

Our expertise covers a wide range of employment and training services including Job Services Australia, Group Training Apprenticeships, Industry Training and Australian Apprenticeships.

HOW WE WORK

At CVGT, we understand that all businesses have different staffing needs.

Whether your need is for permanent, casual or part time staff; employment of trainees by direct or hosted methods; or staff training via accredited or non accredited training courses, our services provide you with simple, effective and flexible solutions.
