

CVGT set to expand

Bendigo - May 11th 2009 Following the announcement of the Job Services Australia tender, CVGT Employment & Training Specialists is proud to announce its successful tender for business in Victoria.

CVGT CEO Paul Green said that the outcome of the Job Services Australia tender is a fantastic result for the company whose origins began 25 years ago in Bendigo.

CVGT's successful tender means that when the new contract begins on 1 July 2009, CVGT will retain its existing business in Victoria and expand its services in Melbourne and regionally in Western Victoria.

CVGT's CEO Paul Green is delighted that CVGT will be able to offer more services for job seekers and employers across Victoria.

CVGT CEO – Paul Green

"This outcome presents considerable challenges and at the same time significant opportunities for CVGT" he said.

Mr. Green said that CVGT will continue to provide innovative approaches to assist job seekers and employers not only through the Job Services Australia contract but also through our Apprenticeship and Training services.

From 1 July 2009, CVGT's Job Services Australia offices will be located in:

New locations:

Ararat, Ballarat, Maryborough, Geelong, Corio, Sunshine, Werribee, Melton, Broadmeadows, Coburg, Epping and Sunbury.

Existing locations:

Albury, Bendigo, Kyneton, Shepparton, Echuca, Cobram, Preston, Wangaratta, Benalla and Seymour

Member of the Innovation Fund Panel:

CVGT will also be a part of the new Innovation Fund Panel. Members of this panel will be able to apply for funding for innovative place-based solutions to address barriers to employment for groups of the most disadvantaged jobseekers.

These Government-funded projects will ultimately lead to obtaining and sustaining employment and will support the Australian Government's Social Inclusion Agenda.

We look forward to developing strategies to assist job seekers and to help employers find the people for their business," he said.

"This is a very exciting time for CVGT as we expand our Jobs Services Australia in Victoria.