Looking for staff? We can help you

People with disability bring a range of skills, talents and abilities to the workplace.

If you're looking for staff, as your local Disability Employment Service provider, CVGT can help you find the right staff for your business.

Our staff will talk to you to understand your business and staffing needs. Then we'll match this to our extensive database of quality candidates to deliver the right match for your business.

We'll be with you every step of the way.

Our free recruitment services include:-

✓ screened and job ready candidates

✓ pre-employment training and work related equipment (if needed)

✓ support while your new employee settles in

✓ funding for workplace modifications (if needed)

✓ access to wage subsidies of up to $10,000 (when you employ an eligible job seeker)

✓ diversity in your workplace.

Why you should hire a person with disability:

- Reliable - People with disability take fewer days off, less sick leave and stay in jobs longer.
- Productive - Once in the right job, people with disability perform as well as other employees.
- Affordable - Real cost savings are realised through less turnover, recruitment and retraining costs. People with disability have a low incidence of workplace injury.
- Good for business - People with disability build strong connections with customers and colleagues. They boost staff morale and loyalty by helping create a diverse workforce.

Where to start

Register your next vacancy with CVGT to give your business access to our pool of job-ready candidates who have the right attitude and skills to work for you.
